Community Based Residential Facilities (CBRF)

Community Based Residential Facility (CBRF) is a place where five or more adults reside:

- who are not related to the operator or administrator
- who do not require care above intermediate level nursing care
- who receive care, treatment or services that are above the level of room and board, but includes no more than three hours of nursing care per week per resident.

These facilities are licensed under Chapter DHS 83, Wisconsin Administrative Code. CBRFs range in size from 5 to 257 beds. CBRFs can admit people of advanced age, persons with dementia, developmental disabilities, mental health problems, physical disabilities, traumatic brain injury, AIDS, Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse, correctional clients, pregnant women needing counseling and/or the terminally ill. The minimum age requirement for residing in a CBRF is 18 years.

Residential Care Apartment Complexes (RCAC)

Residential Care Apartment Complex (RCAC) is a place where five or more adults reside.

Apartments must each have a lockable entrance and exit; a kitchen, including a stove (or microwave oven); and individual bathroom, sleeping and living areas. This living option also provides, to persons who reside in the place, not more than 28 hours per week of the following services:

- Supportive Services: Activities related to general housekeeping, transportation to access community services and recreational activities.
- Personal Assistance: Services related to activities of daily living, e.g., dressing, eating, bathing and grooming. The most common meal plan utilized by tenants of the RCACs is that consisting of two meals per day.
- Nursing Services: Health monitoring, medication administration and medication management.
